

ETHICS AND MALPRACTICE STATEMENT FOR STUDII FRANCISCANE

Rights and responsibilities of authors, reviewers and editors of the Studii Franciscane Journal are presented below.

I. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF AUTHORS

Originality of the article. Citing sources. Responsibility for plagiarism. By submitting an article to the Studii Franciscane Journal for publication, the author warrants that the manuscript is his/her own, original work and that it has neither been published previously nor is currently being considered for publication elsewhere in the same language. The author also warrants that the sources of any ideas and/or words in the manuscript that are not his/her own have been properly attributed through appropriate bibliographical references and using quotes. In case of breach of copyright law/ in case of plagiarism, the entire responsibility rests with the author of the article. The editorial board of Studii Franciscane does not assume any liability for infringement by the authors of the regulations included in copyright legislation and the achievement of plagiarism. If discovered a case of violation of copyright law/plagiarism, the manuscript will be rejected, and the published article will be retracted. The editorial board of Studii Franciscane is exempted from any liability regarding the author's points of view included in the published articles.

Elaboration of the manuscript shall meet the requirements for editing. The manuscript submitted must comply with the requirements for writing under the Publishing conditions for Studii Franciscane Journal.

Not accepting redundant publication. The Studii Franciscane Journal does not accept works in the same language that have already been submitted in part or in full in an article published or which are described in another article sent or accepted by other electronic or printed publications. In case of a redundant publication, the manuscript will be rejected or a published article will be retracted.

Authorizations for reproduction and copyright. Authors are responsible for obtaining written permission to include any images/documents/texts for which they do not hold copyright in their articles.

Prohibition to give the manuscript to other publications. Manuscripts submitted for publication purposes may not be offered to other publications, than after receiving the response in the sense that the material can not be published in the Studii Franciscane Journal or after 6 months when it was registered the material at journal editorial office and it was not received a refuse of publication.

Sending the manuscripts by e-mail only. Materials for publication shall be submitted by authors exclusively electronically by e-mail: [studii franciscane@gmail.com](mailto:studii franciscane@gmail.com)

Assumption of Liability Declaration. Authors whose manuscripts have been selected for publication in Studii Franciscane Journal will need to complete an Assumption of Liability Declaration that the manuscripts belong to them, that the sources were quoted correctly, that they did not reproduce material from unauthorized sources and that the manuscript has not already been published in the same language elsewhere.

Discovery of significant errors or inaccuracies in articles published. Where an author discovers a significant error or inaccuracy in an article of his/hers that has been published in Studii Franciscane Journal, he/she has an obligation to promptly notify the editors and cooperate with them to correct the article or retract it as appropriate.

Right of authors to receive a free copy of the journal. After publishing the article in Studii Franciscane Journal, every author is entitled to receive a copy of the printed journal, which will be sent to the address given by him. Courier delivery charges will be paid by the authors.

II. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF REVIEWERS

Evaluation system. The manuscripts received for publication in the Studii Franciscane Journal will be revised using the „double blind” peer review system, respecting international standards of scientific journals. Thus, any article submitted for publication will be reviewed by at least two specialists with a national and international reputation in theological sciences or philosophy (depending on the nature of the article). Review will be done on an anonymous basis (author's name is not communicated to the reviewers; reviewers name is not communicated to the author). If necessary, the authors will receive recommendations and observations to improve the quality of their paper's content. It is possible to refuse publication of the article to the proposal made by reviewers.

Status of reviewers. Scientific reviewers of the Studii Franciscane Journal operates on a voluntary basis, part-time. Scientific reviewers will complete at beginning of the activity a form with their areas of competence. The editor in chief will send the manuscript for evaluation to at least 2 reviewers with scientific competence in the subject of research, together with an evaluation form. The reviewers who have accepted manuscript assessment tasks must submit completed evaluation form in 45 days (around) of receiving it. Reviewers are free to decline invitations to review particular manuscripts if their current employment workload and/or other commitments make it prohibitive for them to complete a review in a timely fashion and to do justice to the task in the available timeframe. The reviewers are obliged to refuse an invitation to evaluate a manuscript if the manuscript content does not match their area of expertise or in the event of a conflict of interest (e.g., one resulting from competitive, collaborative, or other relationships or connections with institutions, or companies associated with the manuscript).

Confidentiality of information and ideas obtained through the peer review process. Privileged information or ideas obtained by reviewers through the peer review process must be kept confidential and not used for personal advantage. Any manuscripts received for review must be treated as confidential documents and must not be shown to or discussed with others except as authorized by the Editor in chief of Studii Franciscane Journal.

Objectivity of the evaluation. When conducting their reviews, reviewers are asked to do so as objectively as possible, refraining from engaging in personal criticism of the author(s). They are encouraged to express their views clearly, explaining and justifying all recommendations made. They should always attempt to provide detailed and constructive feedback to assist the author(s) in improving their work.

Content of evaluation. Reviewers will complete the Evaluation Form sent of the Editor in chief. In the Evaluation Form, reviewers should include the appreciations regarding the framing of the subject in journal theme, the topic relevance and degree of scientific novelty, knowledge of relevant literature in the field, consistency and quality of writing style, research methods used by the author, the logic of scientific arguments, the correct use of bibliographic sources. Reviewers should call to the Editor in chief attention any major resemblances between a manuscript under consideration and other published articles or papers of which they are aware, as well as any concerns they might have in relation to the ethical acceptability of the research reported in the manuscript. In conducting the evaluation, reviewers will take into account the provisions of COPE Ethical Guidelines for Peer Reviewers published by Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE). Following the evaluation, reviewers can recommend: publication of the article, publication of the article only if it will be amended in accordance with the observations made in the Evaluation Form; not publishing the article.

III. RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF EDITORS

The final decision of publishing. The Editor in chief has ultimate responsibility for deciding if a manuscript submitted to Studii Franciscane Journal should be published, and in doing so is guided by the evaluations carried out by scientific reviewers, by the provisions of this Ethics and Malpractice Statement and by the copyright law. The Editor in chief may consult with other members of the Editorial Board team, as well as with reviewers, in making publication decisions.

Objectivity of the evaluation. Prohibition of discrimination on grounds related to the person of the author. The editors will evaluate manuscripts for their intellectual content without regard to the race, gender, ethnic origin or citizenship the author.

Confidentiality of the information and ideas contained in the manuscript. The editors will not disclose any information about a manuscript under consideration to anyone other than the author and reviewers.

Ensuring the integrity of the evaluation process. The editors will make every effort to ensure the integrity of the „double blind” peer review process by not revealing the identity of the author of a manuscript to the reviewers of that manuscript, and vice versa.

Evaluation harmful effects in ethics of scientific research. When evaluating a manuscript for publication, the editors will seek evidence that ethical harms have been minimized in the conduct of the reported research. They will question whether the benefits outweigh the harms in the particular study’s case.

Request for information on compliance of scientific research ethics. Studii Franciscane Journal welcomes the submission of manuscripts from any country. Studii Franciscane Journal recognizes that laws and regulations regarding research ethics and ethical approval vary worldwide. As such, the editors may need to seek clarification in this regard with the author and to send notifications to institutions responsible for research ethics in the country of the author and / or international organizations active in this field.

Guidelines used by editors. In analyzing of the manuscript, editors will consider compliance the publication requirements set out under the Publishing conditions for Studii Franciscane Journal and recommendations of the Guidance for Editors: Research, Audit and Service Evaluations published by Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE). The editors will be guided by Guidelines for Retracting Articles published by Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) when considering retracting an article published in Studii Franciscane Journal. Relations of cooperation between editors and research organizations / institutions that support the journal will be made in accordance with Cooperation between research institutions and journals on research integrity cases: guidance from the Committee on Publication Ethics \(COPE\) published by Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE).

Editor in chief
Fr. conf. univ. dr. Ștefan ACATRINEI
[studii franciscane@gmail.com](mailto:studii franciscane@gmail.com)